Re: Fikret Ashkar v. TGC 24 Hour Truck Repair, Inc.
United States District Court #C 07-4236 JCS

Dear Judge Spero:

I am enclosing a stipulation between plaintiff and defendant and proposed order regarding the briefing schedule for plaintiff's motion to remand which extends the time for briefing given the court's new date of December 14, 2007 for hearing the motion. This is pursuant to the court's order changing the hearing date to December and indicating that changes in the briefing schedule could be handled through a stipulation and order. I would appreciate the court reviewing the stipulation and signing the order.

Sincerely yours,

Norman La Force

STIPULATION AND ORDER RE
BRIEFING SCHEDULE FOR
PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO REMAND
MATTER TO STATE COURT

17 RECITALS

18 The Court has set the hearing date for plaintiff's motion to remand this matter to State
19 Court following defendant's removal of the action to federal court for December 14, 2007
20 instead of October 19, 2007. In addition, defendant's counsel has had several scheduling
21 conflicts, including a short vacation, that had cut the number of days for counsel to file
22 defendant's opposition to the motion to remand on the date set for the original hearing. Based
23 on the original hearing date, defendant's opposition papers would be due on September 28,
24 2007. Defendant needs some additional time to prepare opposition papers. Defendant is also
25 agreeable to providing plaintiff additional time to file any reply brief, if such additional time
26 is necessary. Plaintiff has asked for and defendant is agreeable to serving any opposition by 27 personal service on plaintiff's counsel.

STIPULATION

It is stipulated by and between counsel for plaintiff and counsel for defendant that defendant shall have an additional two weeks or until October 12, 2007 to file and serve defendant's opposition papers. Service on plaintiff shall be by personal service. Plaintiff shall have until October 26, 2007 to file and serve any reply papers.
